

Air Blows On Germany Will Be Beyond All Imagination—Mr. Churchill

By JAMES M. LONG
London, Feb. 22 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill told the world today that Allied bombing far beyond anything yet "employed or indeed imagined" would strike Germany in every corner in prelude to the final smashing by American and British invasion armies of "approximately equal" power.

The three great Allies still stand "absolutely united" and "none of the ground made good at Moscow or Teheran" has been lost despite disquieting articles in the Soviet press, the British war leader asserted in a confident but cautious war review in Commons.

Allies Are United
The Allies stand united on war plans which make certain a victory that "may not be so far away," he declared.

Churchill said he could neither guarantee that the war would finish in Europe this year, or extend into 1945, and declared Hitler still is in "full control" in Germany, with 300 divisions in his army.

Half a million Nazis are fighting in Italy, and "Hitler evidently has decided to defend Rome with the same obstinacy as Stalingrad." But Allied leaders are confident of success, and reinforcements are pouring in from Africa.

Other Highlights
Other main highlights of Churchill's first war review since the Teheran and Cairo conferences:

AIR OFFENSIVE: The U. S. bomber force in Britain "now begins to surpass our own and soon will be substantially greater still." This war campaign against Germany—the foundation for invasion and "our chief offensive effort at present"—will reach a scale "far beyond the dimensions of anything which yet has been employed or indeed imagined," with long-range bombers hitting Germany from Italy as well as Britain.

RETALIATION: "The Germans are preparing on the French shores new means of attack on this country either by pilot-less aircraft or possibly rockets or both on considerable scale," but vigilant Allied Air Commands are "striking at all evidences of these preparations."

Continuous Bombing
INVASION: While the British and American forces will be relatively equal at the outset, if this battle is prolonged "the continuous flow of Americans would make their force the greater."

Long-range bombers from Britain and Italy will reach into every part of Germany to smash and destroy munitions, he asserted.

Churchill told Commons that "the U. S. bomber force in Britain now has begun to surpass our own, and soon will be substantially greater still," and termed the Allied aerial offensive "the foundation upon which our plans for overseas invasion stand."

Chief Offensive Effort
This attack "must be regarded as our chief offensive effort at present," he added.

The Prime Minister, giving his first war review since the Teheran and Cairo conferences, asserted that "Hitler evidently has decided to defend Rome with the same obstinacy as Stalingrad."

The fact there are "something like half a million Germans now in Italy is not unwelcome to the Allies," he added.

"Hitler and his police force are still in full control (in Germany) and the Nazi party and generals have decided to hang together," Churchill said, declaring he could give no guarantee that the war in Europe would end this year—or that it would not.

Confident Of Success
Speaking of the Italian front, he said "the forces in the bridgehead are well matched. We are definitely stronger in artillery and armor and when the weather is favorable our air power plays an immense part."

Allied leaders there are confident of final success, the Prime Minister continued, and "we have sufficient forces at our disposal in Africa to nourish the struggle as fast as they can be transported across the Mediterranean."

"We must fight the Germans somewhere unless we are to stand still and watch the Russians," he remarked.

Local Paintings In Hagerstown Display

Three Gettysburg artists have had pictures hung in the twelfth annual exhibition of the Cumberland Valley Artists in the Washington county museum of fine arts at Hagerstown. The display opened January 30 and will close February 28, being followed by a photographic exhibit.

Two oil paintings, "Mead's Headquarters at Gettysburg," by Miss Anna E. Mumper, and "Canadian Poplars, Quebec," by Frederick J. Kurtz, both of Gettysburg, and a pastel titled "Tea Time," by Mrs. Dunning Idle, Jr., Baltimore street, are on display there.

Good Evening
The Lenten season officially opens tomorrow and continues for forty days.

Three Attorneys, Chief Of Police In Draft Of 167

Donald P. McPherson, Jr., Esq., chairman of the county rationing board, and two other members of Adams county's already depleted bar; Chief of Police Glenn Guise, Special Officer C. William Zhea, Borough Secretary Wilmer Dracha, local businessmen and several state, federal and town employees are included in the list of 167 men from Gettysburg and western Adams county who are being ordered to Harrisburg Thursday, March 2nd, for pre-induction physical examinations.

Franklin R. Bigham, Esq., only member of the firm of Keith, Bigham and Markley, Esqs., remaining in active practice, and Richard A. Brown, Esq., another only remaining member of a local law firm, are the other attorneys called for their final physical examinations.

May Be Called After 21 Days
Garagemen, grocers and employes in a dozen Gettysburg and county business firms are included in the call, the largest ever sent out by the local board.

The men who are accepted for service in any branch of the armed forces will be subject to call for active duty after 21 days.

Today's list was issued following a meeting of the draft board Monday evening. Unofficially it was expected that next month's call will summon all the remaining former 3A's, or pre-Pearl Harbor fathers, for their pre-induction physical examinations.

The New Oxford draft board office has adopted a policy of not announcing names of men sent for physical examinations or of those accepted for duty until the men actually are ordered to report for service. One draft board official from the New Oxford district said today that board is busy filling a call for "more than 200" to report for physicals next week.

USWV Will Elect Officer Friday

A special meeting of the William M. Steffy post of the United Spanish War Veterans has been called for Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Legion building for the purpose of electing a new junior vice commander to fill a vacancy caused in the camp staff by the recent death of Capt. Carl M. Taute, who was the commander at the time of his death.

Samuel A. Snavely, Gettysburg, succeeds to the commandship as the senior vice commander and George Smith, New Oxford, advances from junior to senior vice commander. The Auxiliary of the post will meet at the same time in the Odd Fellows' building.

LOCAL BOARD CALLS 21 MEN TO NAVY DUTY

As the Gettysburg draft board today prepared notices to be sent to a long list of men to be sent to Harrisburg next week for pre-induction physical examinations, it announced a list of 21 men—all but two of them classified as "fathers"—who have been ordered to report for active duty with the Navy on March 1.

The 21 inductees will report at Harrisburg. All passed their final physical examinations at Harrisburg February 2.

- The list follows:
- Joel D. Musselman, Gettysburg R. 5.
 - Cletus Bertram Shultz, Biglerville R. 2.
 - Richard L. Fox, 29 Stevens Street, Gettysburg.
 - Walter Samuel Null, Gettysburg R. 2.
 - Alston Leroy Peters, Bendersville.
 - Nicholas Edward Kint, Iron Springs R. 1.
 - Herman Edward Bittinger, Bendersville.
 - Willis Levi Weikert, Seminary avenue.
 - Robert Aloysius Codori, East Broadway.
 - William Lymna Hertz, Fairfield R. 1.
 - Rufus William Weaver, 64 West Middle street.

 - Daniel Eugene Callahan, 236 East Middle street.
 - Lester John Roth, Biglerville R. 1.
 - Curtis Woodrow Sanders, Gettysburg R. 1.
 - Marlin Russell Derr, Gettysburg R. 2.
 - John Lamont Kane, Biglerville R. 1.
 - Dwight Emerson Kessel, Biglerville R. 2.
 - Dean Lavere Carey, Biglerville.
 - Gaylord Harold Fissell, 132 Hanover street.
 - Harvey Abraham Miller, Gettysburg R. 3.

LOCAL WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY MONDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Emma Kathryn Stallsmith, 55, wife of Wilbur J. Stallsmith, died suddenly Monday evening at 10:45 o'clock at her home, 132 East Middle street. Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner who investigated, said death was caused by a heart attack.

A registered nurse, she had been on duty Monday at the Warner hospital on a private case, and had returned home shortly after 7 o'clock Monday evening. She complained at the time of indigestion and about 10:30 o'clock went to bed. She was stricken a short time later and died in about 10 minutes, before a doctor could arrive.

Born in Straban township, she was a daughter of the late Francis and Sarah E. Kime Frommeyer, late of Adams county, and lived all of her life in the county. A member of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church, she was treasurer of the Queen of Peace Council of the Pennsylvania Catholic Beneficial league and was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary. She took her nursing training at Providence hospital, Washington, D. C., and had been on private duty since her graduation. She assisted as civic nurse in Gettysburg during vacation periods, or illness of the regular nurse.

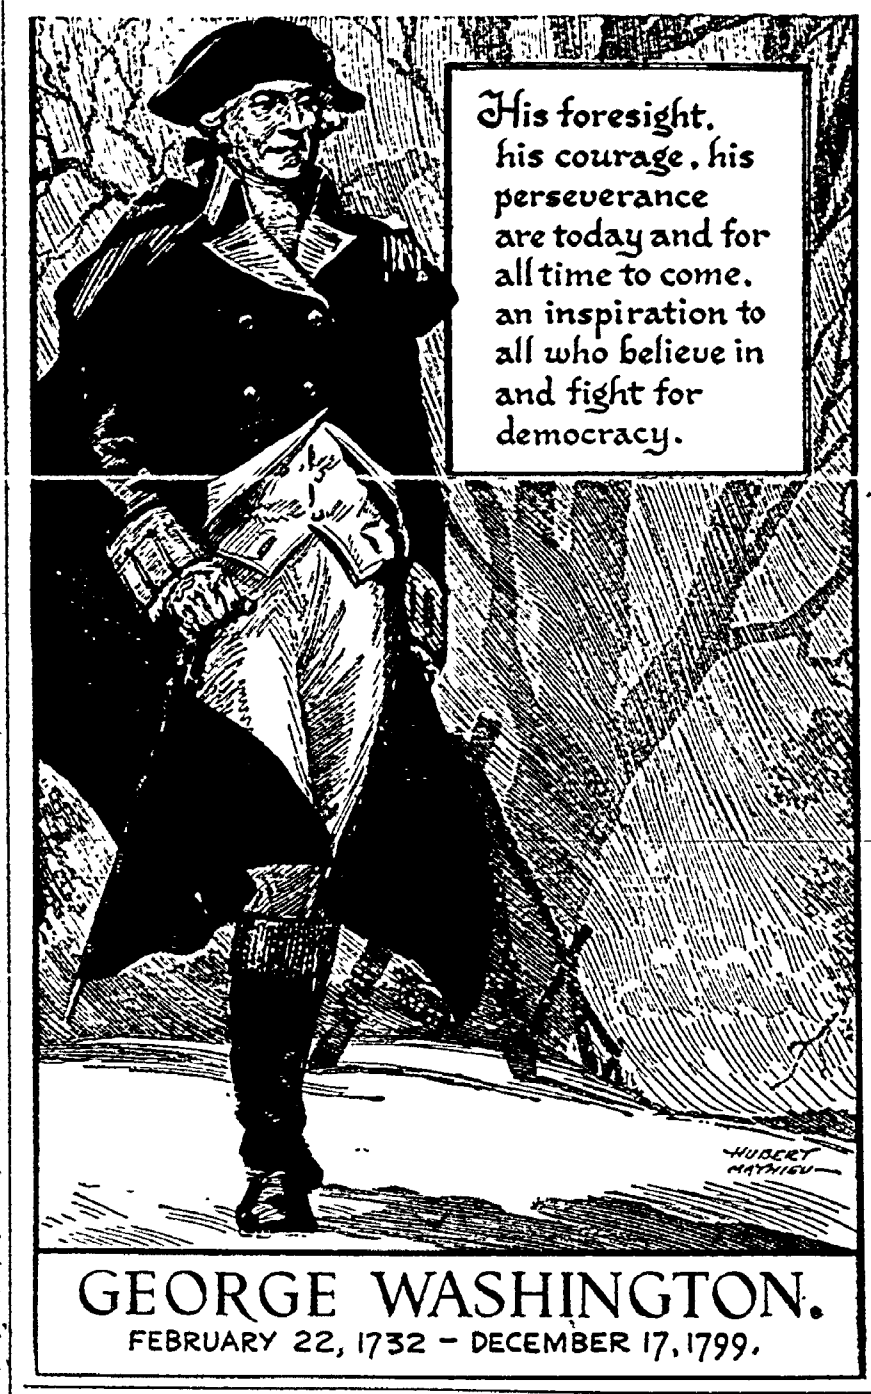

She is survived by her husband, former Burgess and councilman Wilbur J. Stallsmith; two daughters, Mrs. G. Henry Roth, Hanover street, and Miss Jane Stallsmith, Silver Spring, Maryland; two grandchildren; a brother, Jacob K. Frommeyer, Baltimore, and three sisters, Mrs. Dora Beall, Gettysburg; Mrs. Richard Gott, Silver Spring, Maryland, and Mrs. Howard Garvin, West Chester.

Funeral services Thursday morning, meeting at the late home at 8:30 o'clock with a high requiem mass at 9 o'clock at St. Francis Xavier Catholic church conducted by the Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock. Interment in the Catholic cemetery. Friends may call at the late home Wednesday evening from 7 to 9.

Those called include:

- Harold Thomas McElroy, 50 West Middle street.
- H. C. Clapsaddle, Gettysburg R. 2.
- John Cleon Hertz, 62 Breckenridge street.
- Carl McKinley Kidwell, 155 York street.

225 COUNTIANS CALLED TO GIVE BLOOD FRIDAY

Appointment cards for 225 volunteer donors from all sections of Adams county were in the mail today in preparation for the monthly visit of the mobile Red Cross blood receiving unit in the blood donor station in Christ Lutheran church basement here Friday.

The Blood Donor "service" committee of the Red Cross here has set a goal of 150 pints per month to reach the 1,800-pint quota for the year with the slogan "A pint for every countian in the armed forces." Last year countians gave 1,242 pints here on 11 visits of the Harrisburg unit.

A fast pace for 1944 was set on Blood Donor Day in January when a new local record of 167 pints was set.

Radford H. Lippy, Blood Donor Service chairman, today made his usual request that persons who receive an "appointment to save a life" and find they are unable to fill the appointment because of illness or any other reason should notify him promptly so that substitutes may be summoned.

Need New Donors
Appointments begin at noon and will continue to 4:15 o'clock.

The local Donor Service is continuing its appeal for new donors. Registrations of new volunteers have been "fair," Mr. Lippy said, but more are needed. With the mounting action in the Pacific, heavy fighting in Italy and the nearing prospect of a major invasion of Europe, national Red Cross has renewed urgent appeals for new donors and increased quotas of blood for plasma to help save lives on Allied battlefronts.

Alumnae of the Beta Lambda chapter of Delta Gamma sorority will serve in the "kitchen" at the donor station Friday. Women of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church will be on duty in the dining room.

Mrs. James Shenk, 3 Chambersburg street, has returned home after being discharged from the York City hospital following a minor operation.

44 Jap Ships Sunk In Yank Assault On Rabaul

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, Feb. 22 (AP)—Nine more Japanese ships—fugitives from battered Rabaul, harbor—have been hunted down along the New Ireland coast and sunk by Allied planes.

This new destruction last Saturday and Sunday brought to 44 the total number of Japanese ships sunk by bombs and guns in the Bismarck Archipelago area within a period of one week.

Warships and merchantmen of various sizes were included. The largest was a 10,000-ton tanker.

Planes found some of the enemy vessels hiding in inlets and coves along the wooded New Ireland shore, where they had been dispersed for safety.

Less than a week before, Army and Navy planes sunk or caused the beaching of 15 vessels of an enemy convoy off New Ireland. Aerial bombing and naval shelling of shipping at Rabaul and Kavieng, New Ireland, harbors accounted for other sinkings.

General Douglas MacArthur disclosed the Japanese shipping losses in a communique that told also of new air assaults on the airdromes around Rabaul, and throughout the southwest Pacific.

Twenty-six more Japanese planes were shot down, bringing the total for one week to 144. Twenty-three of the new Japanese plane losses were over Lunakai airdrome Saturday morning when they sent up 40 or 50 fighters to try to ward off an attack by dauntless dive bombers and Avenger torpedo planes. Three more were winged by Lightnings escorting Liberator bombers over Toba airport. Allied plane losses were minor.

Catholic Church Services In Lent

Lent will officially open tomorrow morning for a period of forty days. Services at the St. Francis Xavier's Catholic church for Ash Wednesday were announced today by Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, rector.

Blessing and distribution of ashes will take place before the eight o'clock mass tomorrow morning. At 7:30 in the evening there will be Stations of the Cross, Benediction and distribution of ashes.

Masses during the Lenten period will be said every morning at 8 o'clock in the church with the exception of Saturday when mass will be said at 7:30 o'clock in the convent.

There will be Stations of the Cross every Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and every Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

PUPILS BOOST SALE OF BONDS

War bond and stamp sales in the Gettysburg public schools and the parochial school for the week ending February 19 totaled $4,658.95.

The reports by schools follow: High school—bonds, $993.75, and stamps, $75.80; Meade—bonds, $75, and stamps, $89.25; Lincoln—bonds, $1,493, and stamps, $93.90; High Street—bonds, $200, and stamps, $55.50; parochial—bonds, $1,582.75, and stamps, $45.25.

The Women of the Moose report having sold $300 in bonds and $15.50 in stamps at the Moose home during the same period and $50 in bonds and $40.75 in stamps at the booth at Murphy's store. For the previous week bonds amounting to $7,375 and stamps totaling $24.50 were sold at the booth at Murphy's store included and $108.50 in stamps at Murphy's.

Women of the Moose assisting at the booth at Murphy's store included Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Ada Smith, Mrs. Anna Goodermuth, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mrs. Grace Shaner, Mrs. Marian Lee, Mrs. Viola Caskey, Mrs. Dorothy Caskey, Mrs. Nellie McGlaughlin, Mrs. Virginia Lauver, Mrs. Enola Evans, Mrs. Jennie Boyd and Mrs. Madge Myers.

Cloyd Shetter reports that employees at Huber hall bought $1,050 in bonds last week.

At the Gettysburg airport $187.50 were purchased in bonds.

Roosevelt Vetoes Huge Tax Measure

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt tossed the $2,315,000,000 tax bill back to Congress today with a veto message in which he described it as "wholly ineffective" and a relief measure "not for the needy but for the greedy."

In a message to the House, already rumbling with talk of overriding the veto, Mr. Roosevelt said the legislation was "replete with provisions which not only afford in order groups but sets dangerous precedents for the future."

He said this tendency in itself was sufficiently dangerous to counter the loss of "a very inadequate sum" in additional revenue. He calculated that the bill would enrich the treasury by less than $1,000,000,000 net a year.

Stout Allied Defense Halts Foe In Italy

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Feb. 22 (AP)—Capture of Eniwetok island by United States Army troops fighting in the Marshall islands, and the bombing of Paramushiro and Shumushu islands at the northern end of Japan, kept the Japanese aware today that the American offensive in the Pacific was rolling along.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported last night that Eniwetok island, in the atoll of the name at the western edge of the Marshalls, had been taken, and that Parry island, another segment of the atoll, was under heavy attack by American air and surface forces.

Marines already had captured Engebi island in the atoll, and with the taking of Eniwetok despite stubborn resistance and the expected capture of Parry, the strategic atoll will be completely in American hands.

By RICHARD MASSOCK
Allied Headquarters, Naples, Feb. 22 (AP)—Heavy artillery barrages and small but fierce infantry clashes marked the fighting yesterday in the Allied beachhead below Rome, where, Fifth Army officers said today, savage American and British resistance and their counterattacks definitely have beaten the Nazi all-out drive to push the Allies into the sea.

American front-line troops and the Germans fired everything they had at one another at two points yesterday, but neither side gained any ground. This was equally true after British troops clashed with the Germans in several local fights near the key road junction of Carroceto.

Shell Rear Lines
Allied artillery, in a fierce exchange of fire throughout the day, shelled German infantry and tanks forming up around Aprilia "factory" east of Carroceto and apparently broke up preparations for a renewed enemy attack. None developed.

As another day passed without decisive actions either on the main front around Cassino or at the beachhead, Fifth Army observers interpreted relaxation of German pressure against the beachhead as meaning the German offensive to erase it had failed for the second time since the Allies landed below Rome—just a month ago.

At the coastal end of the main southern front in the lower Garigliano region British troops engaged in several small clashes with the Germans, but around the vital highway town of Cassino and the equally bomb-battered Abbey Hill overlooking it, only patrols were active. Guns of both sides shelled back and forth.

Polish Patrol In Action
On the Eighth Army front across the peninsula, Allied artillery fire scattered two small German attacks toward Indian-held positions in the Orsogna area yesterday. A Polish patrol killed four Germans northwest of Sant' Angelo.

Allied airmen attacked German positions ringing the beachhead, and struck at enemy shipping and communication lines including the railroad yards at Orte and docks at Imperia and Leghorn. Three German planes were shot down without any Allied loss.

German Mosquito torpedo boats attempted to dash into Anzio harbor and strike at Allied shipping there under cover of darkness Sunday night, only to be driven off by American naval patrol craft. One E-boat blew up after it was hit and Allied officers believed another was driven ashore.

Allies Hold 100 Square Miles
The lull in fighting left approximately 100 square miles of the beachhead in Allied hands.

A British Eighth Army unit marooned in the snowbound mountains was rescued as its supplies were running out.

Allied planes flew about 500 sorties yesterday while the Germans flew some 60 sorties over the beachhead.

Soviet Troops Pierce Inner Defenses Of Iron Ore Center

By EDDY GILMORE
Moscow, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Red Army pushed into the inner defenses of Krivoi Rog today in a thrust so powerful that it seemed unlikely the Germans would be able to retain their grip much longer on this important iron ore and communications center in the Dnieper bend.

The fall of Krivoi Rog, coming on top of the loss of the manganese center of Nikopol, would constitute one of the hardest industrial blows the Nazi war machine has suffered since the beginning of the Russian winter offensive.

May Trap Nazis
A Soviet communique said that Russian troops had driven yesterday into the outskirts of the city, through which one of two German-held railways runs west from the Dnieper bend. The other line parallels it about 20 miles to the southeast.

A drive across these lines by the Red Army would trap a German force probably larger than the 10 divisions previously encircled and crushed in the Cherkassy pocket 140 miles to the northwest, field dispatches indicated.

On the northern end of the front, the Russian war bulletin said, Soviet forces captured the big German base of Kholm, midway between Lake Ilmen and Novosokolniki, and a number of other points, including the town of Poddorye, district center of the Kalinin region 25 miles northwest of Kholm.

Street Fighting
Capture of Kholm came after Red Army troops cracked the German lines south of the city, severed the highway running westward to Laknya and forced the Lovat river north and south of Kholm, the communique said. Savage street fighting, in which upwards of 500 Germans were reported killed, followed and the enemy was said to have abandoned large stores of equipment, including 49 planes found on the Kholm airport.

West of Lake Ilmen other Red Army forces were driving on Pskov, German communications base, from three directions. These forces were credited officially with capturing approximately 112 towns and villages in yesterday's advance.

(North of Pskov Soviet troops last were reported within 25 miles of the city, but today's communique did not mention the progress of those units. German broadcasts recorded by the Associated Press in London acknowledged a Nazi retreat in the north "to shorten German lines.")

Weather Forecast
Rain and warmer tonight; Wednesday snow and colder.

Spangler Presides
The conditions of Howard "Dutch" Sheffer and Paul Rohrbaugh, both members of the post who have been ill were reported as improved.

Service Officer Joseph Smith reported that discharged veterans of the present war can obtain forms to fill out for their mustering-out pay at the Legion rooms on Baltimore street at any time. Someone will be at the Legion rooms from 7 until 8:30 o'clock each evening to assist the new veterans in filling out the forms.

About 40 attended the session at which Commander Spangler presided.

44 Jap Ships Sunk In Yank Assault On Rabaul

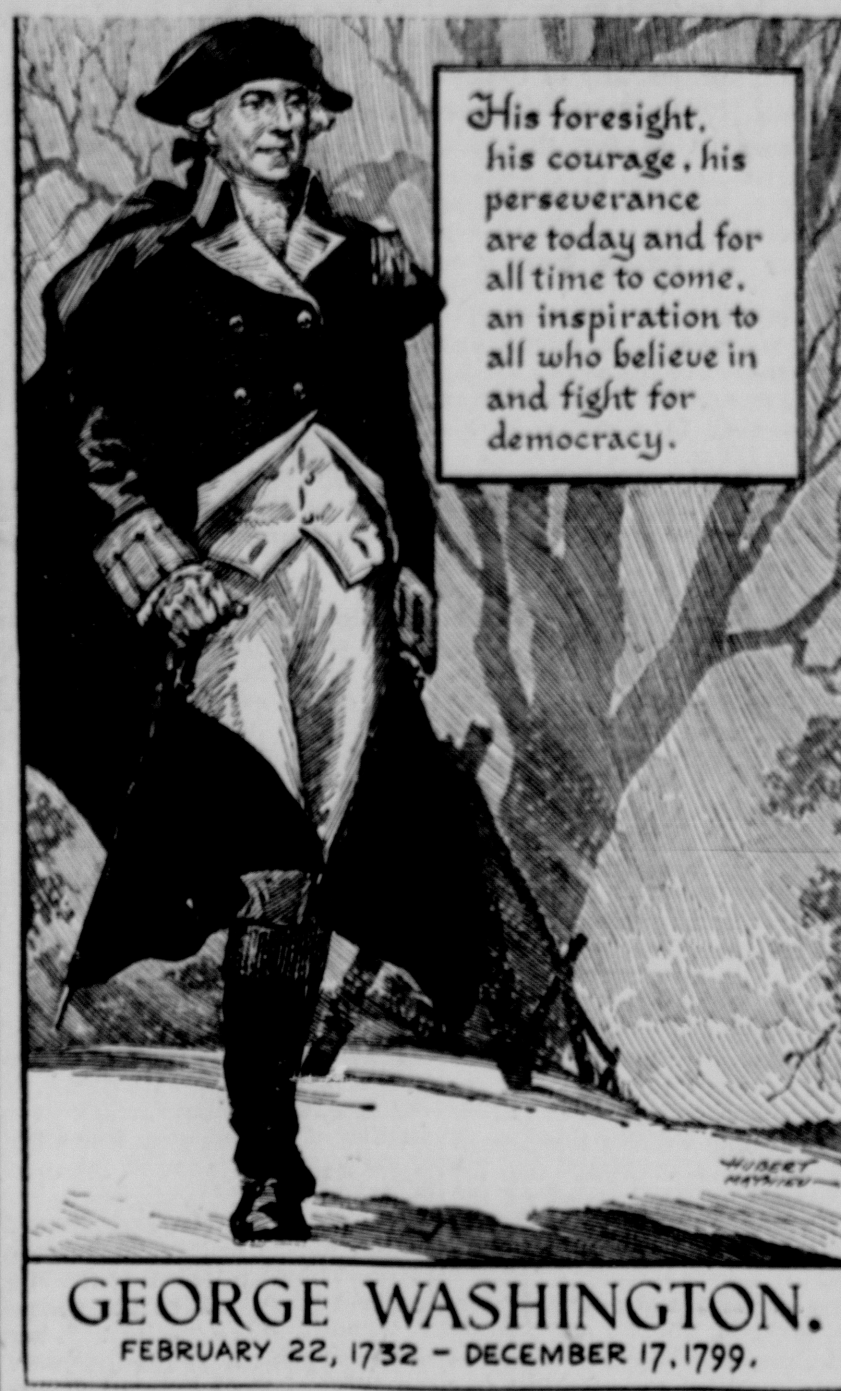

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, Feb. 22 (AP)—Nine more Japanese ships—fugitives from battered Rabaul harbor—have been hunted down along the New Ireland coast and sunk by Allied planes.

This new destruction last Saturday and Sunday brought to 44 the total number of Japanese ships sunk by bombs and guns in the Bismarck Archipelago area within a period of one week.

Warships and merchantmen of various sizes were included. The largest was a 10,000-ton tanker.

Planes found some of the enemy vessels hiding in inlets and coves along the wooded New Ireland shore, where they had been dispersed for safety.

Less than a week before, Army and Navy planes sunk or caused the beaching of 15 vessels of an

225 COUNTIANS CALLED TO GIVE BLOOD FRIDAY

Appointment cards for 225 volunteer donors from all sections of Adams county were in the mail today in preparation for the monthly visit of the mobile Red Cross blood receiving unit in the blood donor station in Christ Lutheran church basement here Friday.

The Blood Donor service committee of the Red Cross here has set a goal of 150 pints per month to reach the 1,800-pint quota for the year with the slogan "A pint for every countian in the armed forces." Last year countians gave 1,242 pints here on 11 visits of the Harrisburg unit.

A fast pace for 1944 was set on Blood Donor Day in January when a new local record of 167 pints was set.

Radford H. Lippy, Blood Donor Service chairman, today made his usual request that persons who receive an "appointment to save a life" and find they are unable to fill the appointment because of illness or any other reason should notify him promptly so that substitutes may be summoned.

Need New Donors
Appointments begin at noon and will continue to 4:15 o'clock.

The local Donor Service is continuing its appeal for new donors. Registrations of new volunteers have been "fair," Mr. Lippy said, but more are needed. With the mounting action in the Pacific, heavy fighting in Italy and the nearing prospect of a major invasion of Europe, national Red Cross has renewed urgent appeals for new donors and increased quotas of blood for plasma to help save lives on Allied battlefronts.

Alumnae of the Beta Lambda chapter of Delta Gamma sorority will serve in the kitchen at the donor station Friday. Women of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church will be on duty in the dining room.

Mrs. James Shenk, 3 Chambersburg street, has returned home after being discharged from the York City hospital following a minor operation.

Catholic Church Services In Lent

Lent will officially open tomorrow morning for a period of forty days. Services at the St. Francis Xavier's Catholic church for Ash Wednesday were announced today by Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, rector.

Blessing and distribution of ashes will take place before the eight o'clock mass tomorrow morning. At 7:30 in the evening there will be Stations of the Cross, Benediction and distribution of ashes.

Masses during the Lenten period will be said every morning at 8 o'clock in the church with the exception of Saturday when mass will be said at 7:30 o'clock in the convent.

There will be Stations of the Cross every Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and every Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

PUPILS BOOST SALE OF BONDS

War bond and stamp sales in the Gettysburg public schools and the parochial school for the week ending February 19 totaled $4,658.95.

The reports by schools follow: High school—bonds, $993.75, and stamps, $75.80; Meade—bonds, $75, and stamps, $89.25; Lincoln—bonds, $1,493, and stamps, $93.90; High Street—bonds, $200, and stamps, $55.50; parochial—bonds, $1,582.75, and stamps, $45.25.

The Women of the Moose report, having sold $300 in bonds and $15.50 in stamps at the Moose home during the same period and $50 in bonds and $40.75 in stamps at the booth at Murphy's store. For the previous week bonds amounting to $7,375 and stamps totaling $24.50 were sold at the booth at Murphy's store included and $108.50 in stamps at Murphy's.

Women of the Moose assisting at the booth at Murphy's store included Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Ada Smith, Mrs. Anna Goodermuth, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mrs. Grace Shaner, Mrs. Marian Lee, Mrs. Viola Caskey, Mrs. Dorothy Caskey, Mrs. Nellie McLaughlin, Mrs. Virginia Lauver, Mrs. Enola Evans, Mrs. Jennie Boyd and Mrs. Madge Myers.

Cloyd Shetter reports that employees at Huber hall bought $1,050 in bonds last week.

At the Gettysburg airport $187.50 were purchased in bonds.

Roosevelt Vetoes Huge Tax Measure

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt vetoed the $2,315,000,000 tax bill back to Congress today with a veto message in which he described it as "wholly ineffective" and a relief measure "not for the needy but for the greedy."

In a message to the House, already rumbling with talk of overriding the veto, Mr. Roosevelt said the legislation was "replete with provisions which not only afford indefensible special privileges to favored groups but sets dangerous precedents for the future."

He said this tendency in itself was sufficiently dangerous to counter the loss of "a very inadequate sum" in additional revenue. He calculated that the bill would enrich the treasury by less than $1,000,000,000 net a year.

Stout Allied Defense Halts Foe In Italy

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Feb. 22 (AP)—Capture of Eniwetok island by United States Army troops fighting in the Marshall islands, and the bombing of Paramushiro and Shumushu islands at the northern end of Japan, kept the Japanese aware today that the American offensive in the Pacific was rolling along.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported last night that Eniwetok island, in the atoll of the name at the western edge of the Marshalls, had been taken, and that Parry island, another segment of the atoll, was under heavy attack by American air and surface forces.

Marines already had captured Engebi island in the atoll, and with the taking of Eniwetok despite stubborn resistance and the expected capture of Parry, the strategic atoll will be completely in American hands.

By RICHARD MASSOCK

Allied Headquarters, Naples, Feb. 22 (AP)—Heavy artillery barrages and small but fierce infantry clashes marked the fighting yesterday in the Allied beachhead below Rome, where, Fifth Army officers said today, savage American and British resistance and their counterattacks definitely have beaten the Nazi all-out drive to push the Allies into the sea.

American front-line troops and the Germans fired everything they had at one another at two points yesterday, but neither side gained any ground. This was equally true after British troops clashed with the Germans in several local fights near the key road junction of Carroceto.

Shell Rear Lines

Allied artillery, in a fierce exchange of fire throughout the day, shelled German infantry and tanks forming up around Aprilia "factory" east of Carroceto and apparently broke up preparations for a renewed enemy attack. None developed.

As another day passed without decisive actions either on the main front around Cassino or at the beachhead, Fifth Army observers interpreted relaxation of German pressure against the beachhead as meaning the German offensive to erase it had failed for the second time since the Allies landed below Rome just a month ago.

At the coastal end of the main southern front in the lower Garigliano region British troops engaged in several small clashes with the Germans, but around the vital highway town of Cassino and the equally bomb-battered Abbey Hill overlooking it, only patrols were active. Guns of both sides shelled back and forth.

Polish Patrol In Action

On the Eighth Army front across the peninsula, Allied artillery fire scattered two small German attacks toward Indian-held positions in the Orsogna area yesterday. A Polish patrol killed four Germans northwest of Sant' Angelo.

Allied airmen attacked German positions ringing the beachhead, and struck at enemy shipping and communication lines including the railroad yards at Orte and docks at Imperia and Leghorn. Three German planes were shot down without any Allied loss.

German Mosquito torpedo boats attempted to dash into Anzio harbor and strike at Allied shipping there under cover of darkness Sunday night, only to be driven off by American naval patrol craft. One E-boat blew up after it was hit and Allied officers believed another was driven ashore.

Allies Held 100 Square Miles

The lull in fighting held approximately 100 square miles of the beachhead in Allied hands.

A British Eighth Army unit marooned in the snowbound mountains was rescued as its supplies were running out.

Allied planes flew about 500 sorties yesterday while the Germans flew some 60 sorties over the beachhead.

Soviet Troops Pierce Inner Defenses Of Iron Ore Center

By EDDY GILMORE
Moscow, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Red Army pushed into the inner defenses of Krivoi Rog today in a thrust so powerful that it seemed unlikely the Germans would be able to retain their grip much longer on this important iron ore and communications center in the Dnieper bend.

Women of the Moose assisting at the booth at Murphy's store included Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Ada Smith, Mrs. Anna Goodermuth, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mrs. Grace Shaner, Mrs. Marian Lee, Mrs. Viola Caskey, Mrs. Dorothy Caskey, Mrs. Nellie McLaughlin, Mrs. Virginia Lauver, Mrs. Enola Evans, Mrs. Jennie Boyd and Mrs. Madge Myers.

Cloyd Shetter reports that employees at Huber hall bought $1,050 in bonds last week. At the Gettysburg airport $187.50 were purchased in bonds.

The fall of Krivoi Rog, coming on top of the loss of the manganese center of Nikopol, would constitute one of the hardest industrial blows the Nazi war machine has suffered since the beginning of the Russian winter offensive.

May Trap Nazis
A Soviet communique said that Russian troops had driven yesterday into the outskirts of the city, through which one of two German-held railways runs west from the Dnieper bend. The other line parallels it about 20 miles to the southeast.

A drive across these lines by the Red Army would trap a German force probably larger than the 10 divisions previously encircled and crushed in the Cherkasy pocket 140 miles to the northwest, field dispatches indicated.

On the northern end of the front, the Russian war bulletin said, Soviet forces captured the big German base of Kholm, midway between Lake Ilmen and Novosokolniki, and a

R. E. WAHLER, 56, DIES SUDDENLY AT LITTLESTOWN

Ralph E. Wahler, 56, West King street, Littlestown, a woodworker for the last 16 years at the plant of the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry plant, dropped over dead this morning after entering the plant about 6:45 o'clock to report for work.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, was called and listed the cause as a cerebral hemorrhage. A physician was called when the man was stricken but death was almost instantaneous.

A son of the late John and Sara Stonestier Wahler, Mr. Wahler had lived in Littlestown for a number of years. He was a lifelong member of the Reformed church there and was a member of the choir and the Men's Eveready Sunday School class.

He belonged to the Alpha fire company at Littlestown and was affiliated with Littlestown lodges of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, Odd Fellows, Ancient Order of Knights of the Mystic Chain, and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Jeanette (Hofe) Wahler; a son, Walter A., Camden, New Jersey; a granddaughter, Audrey Anne; two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Maurice Feaser, Littlestown; John Wahler, Pausboro, New Jersey, and Mrs. Adam Helfrich, York.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. W. Little and son funeral home in Littlestown with the Rev. Theodore W. Boltz, pastor of the deceased, and the Rev. D. S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Littlestown, officiating.

Interment in the Mt. Carmel cemetery at Littlestown. Friends may call at the Little funeral home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

STRESSES NEED OF WASTE PAPER IN WAR EFFORT

The tremendous needs of the nation for waste paper were outlined Monday evening to the Rotary club at its meeting at the YWCA by Henry Schmidt, manager of a York paper company.

Mr. Schmidt and Spurgeon Spangler, of the York Rotary club, attended the session which marked the 39th anniversary of Rotary and also marked the 24th anniversary of the local club. Mr. Schmidt was among the group of York Rotarians who came to Gettysburg in 1920 to assist in forming the Gettysburg club.

Demonstrating the uses of waste paper by showing various containers made for the armed forces, Mr. Schmidt asserted that many paper mills in the country are practically closed through failure to obtain salvaged paper.

Paper Packages

"If we fail to obtain enough paper we will lose our war and our civilization," Mr. Schmidt, who is a member of the state salvage committee, said. "Everything that goes to the armed forces must be packaged. The shells which our artillery uses must be accurate to 1,000th of an inch. To keep that accuracy the shells must be protected enroute. The slightest bump would be to the gun from which it is to be fired. The slightest bump would be to the gun from which it is to be fired. The slightest bump would be to the gun from which it is to be fired."

"Suppose we sent a dipperful of powdered eggs to the soldiers instead of using boxes to package the eggs. The powder would be lost enroute and if it was not lost it would be uneatable through the dirt that would get into it. Suppose there were no boxes, how would we transport our cereals, our foods, our ammunition and all the thousands of things that are needed both by the civilians and the armed forces? And those packages must be made of paper—the paper that all of us throw into the waste basket, our old newspapers, our old magazines and books."

Turn To Papers

"A few months ago we reached the bottom in our paper salvage campaign. In desperation the national authorities turned to the radio for support. There was no increase in the amount of paper salvaged. Then the newspapers were enlisted into the salvage of waste paper drive and the income has increased by 10 per cent. But it is still 100,000 tons of paper a month short of the amount needed to keep the mills running."

President Frederick Tilberg presided at the session with 36 members present.

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP) — Now that Congress has decided to prefil the name of skin milk, Senator Overton (D-La.) thinks it might be well to do something about spinach. His voice dripping with sarcasm, he suggests: "Why not change the name of spinach to 'health and strength greens'?" The very name of spinach is revolting to the human palate, as a rule.

WELFARE GROUP HOLDS MEETING

Henry Lenz, juvenile probation officer for York county, was the speaker at the third in the series of discussion meetings conducted Monday evening at the YWCA building under the auspices of the Adams County Welfare committee of the Public Charities association of Pennsylvania. Paul A. Kinsey, chairman, presided. The topic was "Do Children Need Discipline?"

Discussing the motives behind juvenile misbehavior, Mr. Lenz told the group that an overdose of punishment seldom helps any child to do better. "The need is for a basic understanding by adults and not leniency," he continued. "Willing obedience can be obtained only by the development of a sense of responsibility."

The next meeting will be held next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the same place. Dr. John Waterman from the Tri-county Child Guidance center at Harrisburg will be the speaker. The topic will be "Do Children Need Parents?" All interested are welcome to attend.

TB TESTING OF PUPILS TO GO ON

Members of the executive board of the Adams County Tuberculosis society Monday evening surveyed the results of the most successful seal sale in the organization's history and voted to continue the tuberculosis testing of high school freshmen throughout the county.

The seal sale which opened last November has brought in $2,338.19, approximately $400 more than was secured through the same means in last year's drive.

The board set Tuesday, April 4, as the date for the annual meeting of the society at which officers will be elected.

Those present at the session Monday evening which was held in the court house included: President L. C. Keefeauver, Ralph Z. Oyler, Miss Margaret McMillan, W. A. Keene, Miss Dorothy M. Warner and Miss Helen Spangler, all of Gettysburg; L. V. Stock and C. G. Bucher, Biglerville; Arnold E. Orner, Arendtsville; J. Francis Yake, Esq., McSherrystown, and William M. Lott, Gardners R. D.

Puzzled

So are lots of Americans, sitting up nights with a pencil, a heap of papers and a frustrated look, trying to figure out their income taxes.

You can hear the questions swirling around home, shop and office:

Who has to pay—and what? What can I deduct? What's this "forgiveness" business? What form should I use? What does a serviceman's wife have to do about taxes?

Here come the answers—in simple language—including a line-by-line trip through both the short and long form tax blanks.

James Marlow and George Zielke of The Associated Press will answer these questions in The Gettysburg Times in a series of five articles, starting today. The articles will appear under the heading "How To Figure Your Income Tax."

SPRING MEET OF PSEA HERE

Plans for the spring meeting of the Adams county chapter of the PSEA were outlined at a meeting Monday evening at the office of the county superintendent of schools. The spring session will be held in the form of a dinner meeting at Gettysburg.

Plans to urge all teachers of the county to attend the session were outlined by the executive committee at the session Monday. Dr. Anson Hamm, Fairfield, president of the county chapter, presided.

Dean Stover, Littlestown; Miss Gladys Walter, Orantanna, and Miss Mary Elder, Abbottstown, were appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws to be presented at the spring meeting. Reports of other committees will be heard at the same time.

Attending the meeting Monday evening were Doctor Hamm, Miss Elder, Miss Walter, Miss Dorothy Warner, Miss June Rex, Mrs. Dorothy Duttera, Miss Margaret Benner, Dr. Robert A. Bream and Leslie V. Stock.

CAPTAIN IRWIN IS TRANSFERRED

Captain Shul L. Irwin, of near Gettysburg, recently graduated from the Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, has left North Hood, Texas, to take up new duties with Headquarters, Third Service Command, at Baltimore, Maryland.

Captain Irwin served as adjutant of North Camp Hood, from the camp's activation on April 15, 1943, until November 15, 1943, when he left to attend the Army school. Captain Irwin first came to Camp Hood in July, 1942, when he was assigned to the 7th Tank Group; later he was named assistant adjutant, pending activation of the third cantonment.

Mrs. Irwin is the former Patricia O'Kellier, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Victor J. O'Kellier of Washington, D. C., and Oconto, Wisconsin. Mrs. Irwin and their children, Victor Logan and Patricia Ann, are making their home with her parents in Washington until Captain Irwin can make housing arrangements in the Maryland city.

R. E. WAHLER, 56, DIES SUDDENLY AT LITTLESTOWN

Ralph E. Wahler, 56, West King street, Littlestown, a woodworker for the last 16 years at the plant of the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry plant, dropped over dead this morning after entering the plant about 6:45 o'clock to report for work.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, was called and listed the cause as a cerebral hemorrhage. A physician was called when the man was stricken but death was almost instantaneous.

A son of the late John and Sara Stonieser Wahler, Mr. Wahler had lived in Littlestown for a number of years. He was a lifelong member of the Reformed church there and was a member of the choir and the Men's Everready Sunday School class.

He belonged to the Alpha fire company at Littlestown and was affiliated with Littlestown lodges of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, Odd Fellows, Ancient Order of Knights of the Mystic Chain, and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Services Friday

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Jeannette (Hofe) Wahler; a son, Walter A. Camden, New Jersey; a granddaughter, Audrey Anne; two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Maurice Peeser, Littlestown; John Wahler, Paulsboro, New Jersey, and Mrs. Adam Helfrich, York.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. W. Little and son funeral home in Littlestown with the Rev. Theodore W. Boltz, pastor of the deceased, and the Rev. D. S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Littlestown, officiating.

Interment in the Mt. Carmel cemetery at Littlestown. Friends may call at the Little funeral home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

STRESSES NEED OF WASTE PAPER IN WAR EFFORT

The tremendous needs of the nation for waste paper were outlined Monday evening to the Rotary club at its meeting at the YWCA by Henry Schmidt, manager of a York paper company.

Mr. Schmidt and Spurgeon Spangler, of the York Rotary club, attended the session which marked the 39th anniversary of Rotary and also marked the 24th anniversary of the local club. Mr. Schmidt was among the group of York Rotarians who came to Gettysburg in 1920 to assist in forming the Gettysburg club.

Demonstrating the uses of waste paper by showing various containers made for the armed forces, Mr. Schmidt asserted that many paper mills in the country are practically closed through failure to obtain salvaged paper.

Paper Packages

"If we fail to obtain enough paper we will lose our war and our civilization," Mr. Schmidt, who is a member of the state salvage committee, said. "Everything that goes to the armed forces must be packaged. The shells which our artillery uses must be accurate to 1000th of an inch. To keep that accuracy the shells must be protected enroute. The slightest bump would be to the gun from which it is to be fired. The manufacturing plant here destroys the fine milling that goes into making the shell."

"Suppose we sent a dipperful of powdered eggs to the soldiers instead of using boxes to package the eggs. The powder would be lost enroute and if it was not lost it would be uneconomical through the dirt that would get into it. Suppose there were no boxes, how would we transport our cereals, our foods, our ammunition and all the thousands of things that are needed both by the civilians and the armed forces? And those packages must be made of paper—the paper that all of us throw into the waste basket, our old newspapers, our old magazines and books."

Turn To Papers

"A few months ago we reached the bottom in our paper salvage campaign. In desperation the national authorities turned to the radio for support. There was no increase in the amount of paper salvaged. Then the newspapers were enlisted into the salvage of waste paper drive and the income has increased by 10 per cent. But it is still 100,000 tons of paper a month short of the amount needed to keep the mills running."

President Frederick Tilberg presided at the session with 36 members present.

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—Wendell Willkie returned today from a cross-country tour during which he announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination. His only comment as he left the train from Chicago was that he had "an enjoyable trip."

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—Now that Congress has decided to prettify the name of skim milk, Senator Overton (D-La.) thinks it might be well to do something about spinach. His voice dripping with sarcasm, he suggests: "Why not change the name of spinach to 'health and strength greens'? The very name of spinach is revolting to the human palate as a rule."

WELFARE GROUP HOLDS MEETING

Henry Lenz, juvenile probation officer for York county, was the speaker at the third in the series of discussion meetings conducted Monday evening at the YWCA building under the auspices of the Adams County Welfare committee of the Public Charities association of Pennsylvania. Paul A. Kinsey, chairman, presided. The topic was "Do Children Need Discipline?"

Discussing the motives behind juvenile misbehavior, Mr. Lenz told the group that an overdose of punishment seldom helps any child to do better. "The need is for a basic understanding by adults and not leniency," he continued. "Willing obedience can be obtained only by the development of a sense of responsibility."

The next meeting will be held next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the same place. Dr. John Waterman from the Tri-county Child Guidance center at Harrisburg will be the speaker. The topic will be "Do Children Need Parents?" All interested are welcome to attend.

TRIO OF LOCAL TEAMS TO PLAY HERE TOMORROW

A basketball double-header holding much local interest will be staged on the Gettysburg college court Wednesday evening at which time the Gettysburg high varsity will meet the Bullet freshmen while in the preliminary game the Lutheran Theological Seminary quintet will meet Shippensburg State Teachers' college.

The feature game will mark the second meeting between the Maroons and Bullets. In the first game played on the high school court two weeks ago the Maroons put on a last period rally to win after a thrilling game 28-25. Another close battle is anticipated for Wednesday.

At 7 o'clock the seminarians will tangle with Shippensburg for the third time this season. Shippensburg won the first game 26-24 while the Angels captured the second 30-26.

Wednesday's tilt will mark the first home appearance of the seminarian outfit.

SQUIRES DOWN YORK CATHOLIC

Jake Dracha's Delone high basketball team virtually clinched the right to represent the Harrisburg Diocese in the Catholic high school state-wide championship playoffs by defeating York Catholic high 26-20 in a game played Monday evening at York.

The Squires were given a stiff battle throughout and the outcome was in doubt until the final minutes. At half time the McSherrystown lads led 14-13.

Last year Delone entered the playoffs as a Class A team but it has not been definitely decided if the team will be entered this year as a Class A or B team.

Delone will next engage the Gettysburg high Maroons here Friday evening.

State College, Pa., Feb. 22 (AP)—Hal Frey, Penn State's ace gymnast, is training for the Eastern Intercollegiate gymnastics with his right foot in a cast.

Frey fractured a bone in a meet with Navy. But he's gunning for the Intercollegiate all-around title and insists on going through a daily routine on the rings and bars.

Coach Gene Wettstone says he'll be ready. The Intercollegiate will be an Annapolis March 11.

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—In an effort to have New York university resume football the undergraduate board has requested the Board of Athletic Control to approve an informal team this fall. Philip O. Badger, chairman, said the proposal would be considered at the next meeting of the Athletic Control group.

Chicago, Feb. 22 (AP)—Dead-eye Dick Ives and his University of Iowa basketball teammate, Dave Danner, who have given Big Ten cage teams plenty of trouble all season, are going to finish the season in a little friendly competition.

The two Hawkeye freshmen stars, with two games remaining, are in a position to carry off the conference individual scoring title.

Currently Ives is leading with 178 points in 10 games, with Danner trailing by eight points. He is in fourth place, but Arnold Risen and Don Grate, with 175 and 171 points, respectively, have finished their schedule for Ohio State.

Philadelphia Has Poultry Famine

Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—A poultry famine has developed here because farmers are bypassing the city for New York and Baltimore markets where, under an OPA ruling, they may charge one cent a pound more, a spokesman for the Associated Butchers of Philadelphia alleged today.

Arthur E. Dennis, association attorney, said the price differential is creating "a budding black market."

Boxing Tourney At Harrisburg Cancelled

Harrisburg, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament of the Harrisburg Telegraph Athletic association has been cancelled this year due to shortage of manpower and failure to obtain Middle Atlantic Amateur Athletic union sanction for dates approximately those of previous tournaments.

"The fact that so many of the 18-year-old boys are going into the armed forces and others are awaiting call," declared tournament Director Nobe Frank yesterday, "would make it impossible to stage a Golden Glove tournament comparable to those of pre-war years."

Work Is Rushing At Raritan Arsenal

Metuchen, N. J., Feb. 22 (AP)—Work is at such a high pitch at the Raritan arsenal that Army officers from second lieutenants to lieutenant colonels, and even members of a 20-piece Army Air Forces band, are helping with the manual labor in the plants and warehouses, an Army spokesman says.

Overseas shipments of ordnance must be trebled, and all units and ranks stationed at the arsenal are lending hand. The officers are devoting what time they can spare from their assigned duties. Civilian employees have been placed on a seven-day week.

Industrial plants and business firms in the area are cooperating in the part-time use of their employees, and more than 35 Rutgers university students have registered for temporary employment.

FRENCH BOXER TOPS FIGHTERS IN N. AFRICA

By SID FEDER
New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—From out of the just-concluded Allied North African boxing championships, the word drifted today that Tony Zale, Mr. Big of the world middleweights, may have quite a scramble on his hands from the French sailor-fighter, Marcel Cerdan, if the war ends in time.

Generally, the soldier and sailor swatters in the week-long Algiers tournament were willing workmen with more clout than boxing class, despite the lapping of Larry Cisneros, the California lightweight who was rated among the top dozen or so in this country a couple of years back, and Florent Desmarais, who was somewhat better than a green hand around New Hampshire and the rest of New England in 1942. Cisneros, who lost only eight of 57 pro fights in four years before joining the Army, wound up with the welterweight crown and Desmarais took the lightweight title.

Forecast Success
But the word on the thumping Tar from France gave him the unanimous vote as the ear-masher most likely to succeed, especially the way he tossed his blockbusters through the "senior welterweight" division. Before this tourney, he knocked off both Cisneros and Desmarais, and in grabbing the senior welterweight bauble, he flattened two of the three Americans he met in a round a-piece.

Marcel is no new comer to the business of denting ears. In fact, the International Boxing Union recognizes him as the middleweight champ of Europe—or it did when last heard from. The more reserved British Board of Boxing Control doesn't go quite that far, but concedes he's the head man in France. He's 26 and has been punching his way around Europe and Africa since 1936. In '40 he called it a career, temporarily, to join the Navy. Last December he dusted off his stuff again, and since then, in half a dozen trips to the post no one went more than three or four heats with him. Which is par for the course.

Boiling Springs To Play At Arendtsville

Arendtsville high school will be without the service of Jack Taylor, rangy pivot, in tonight's game with Washington Township high school on the latter's court. It is also doubtful if Captain Paul Fissel will see action as he has been suffering from an attack of grip. Taylor sprained an ankle in the opening minutes of the recent Delone game and may be out of action all week.

Arendtsville fans will get their last view of the fast traveling vocational high school dribblers on the home court Wednesday night when they take on Boiling Springs in the final home tilt. This game was postponed from an earlier date due to the inability of the visiting team to arrive in time for the original date due to a snow storm. Both boys' and girls' teams will be in action Wednesday night with a host of players wearing the orange and black on the local hardwoods for the last time.

A return game with Arendtsville's arch-athletic rival, Biglerville, will be played in Biglerville Friday night. The final game of the regular court campaign will be played at Boiling Springs on February 29. Both boys and girls will be in action at Biglerville and Boiling Springs.

Due to the fine showing that the Arendtsville vocational High school has made in Class "B" county conference play they will again appear in P.I.A.A. playoffs which will be announced in the near future. The record to date includes nine wins and three losses. All county competition in their class has been defeated.

Hawaiian-born playmates, they were roommates at Ohio State. Smith dashed down from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station to Evanston where he made a 1:53.9 mark in the 220-yard free style in a dual meet with Iowa State, smashing his own world record of 1:56.6. Boy, 9, Drowns In Fall Through Ice

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 22 (AP)—David Jones, 9, drowned in four or five feet of water in Black Lick creek at Nanty-Glo yesterday, after he had broken through ice, despite a desperate effort by his father to save him.

Called from his nearby home by David's playmates, the father, William Jones, waded into the icy waters holding one end of wire. He was but a few feet from his son when the boy slipped under the ice and vanished. Almost at the same time, Jones' legs gave away under him and he had to be pulled to the shore by the boys.

Five hours later Conemaugh firemen found David's body, 12 feet from the spot where he broke through the ice.

New Relief Work Planned In Balkans

Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration is recruiting workers for "a special relief project in the Balkans," the Philadelphia Record says today.

The record reports that 176 workers, chosen from 30 eastern social agencies, will be among a 500-man relief staff of Americans, Britons and nationals of Middle East countries.

James G. Vail, former service secretary of the American Friends Service committee, disclosed the plan, the newspaper adds, Vail is quoted as saying that the group will operate "under military government," doing sanitation work, epidemic control, nursing and public health, with "supplies" allocated through the armies.

CANNERS SPLIT WITH LEMOYNE

The Biglerville high school basketball teams divided a pair of West Shore Scholastic league games with Lemoyne high at Biglerville Monday evening.

The boys got off to a poor start in the first period and dropped a 32-25 decision. At half time the visitors led 17-11. Scoring for both teams was evenly divided.

Coach Samuel Ehlman's unbeaten Biglerville girls won their 12th straight by winning the preliminary game 40-22. The victory also gave the Canners a perfect record in league competition. Betty Roddy paced the winners with 20 points.

A third game was played between the Blacks and Whites of the reserve boys' teams and resulted in a 21-11 victory for the Whites.

Biglerville will close its season Friday evening by meeting Arendtsville at Biglerville.

EX-COURT STAR BUYING BONDS

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—Mollie Mallory, eight times national singles champion and conqueror of the famous Suzanne Lenglen in a dramatic match in 1921, now goes happily about her business as a government employee, paying no attention to present day tennis and finding it "more fun to buy war bonds."

Since she retired in 1928 after a long career in which she won fame in her native Norway and on the courts of the world, Mrs. Mallory has not touched a tennis racket. "I never had any desire to play a friendly game with anyone," she said. "I played tennis for just one reason. I wanted to beat everybody, didn't care about prizes or trophies. It was just in my blood to win. When I couldn't play tournament tennis any more I lost interest."

Mrs. Mallory disclosed that she once had an offer to turn professional for a promised $100,000 but turned it down because she never could see getting paid for something she liked to do.

The highlight of her career was the day in 1921 when the great Lenglen, now dead, stomped off the Forest Hills courts to defeat her place in the nationals after losing the first set to Mrs. Mallory. They met later and Mollie lost but it was that match of 23 years ago that will long be remembered as one of the most dramatic incidents of American sport.

Three Men Held For Hijacking Brandy

Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—A night club owner and two other men were held in $2,500 each today in connection with what Federal Bureau of Investigation agents described as the hijacking of a $30,000 cargo of fine imported Portuguese brandy.

The owner, Louis A. Tomasco, Jr., 40, was charged with receiving property stolen in interstate commerce. Agents testified before U. S. Commissioner Norman J. Griffin that he purchased 20 cases knowing that it was "hot."

Carnegie Tech Coach Is Called

Pittsburgh, Feb. 22 (AP)—Football coach Joseph P. (Mugsy) Skladany of Carnegie Tech, who passed his physical examination Feb. 10, was notified yesterday he will be called to serve in the Navy.

An end at Pitt, Skladany later played professional football with the Steelers, and in 1937 became assistant coach at Tech. When Dr. Eddie Baker left the head coaching job last fall to enter the Naval Reserve, Skladany was named as successor.

Work Is Rushing At Raritan Arsenal

Metuchen, N. J., Feb. 22 (AP)—Work is at such a high pitch at the Raritan arsenal that Army officers from second lieutenants to lieutenant colonels, and even members of a 20-piece Army Air Forces band, are helping with the manual labor in the plants and warehouses, an Army spokesman says.

Overseas shipments of ordnance must be trebled, and all units and ranks stationed at the arsenal are devoting what time they can spare from their assigned duties. Civilian employees have been placed on a seven-day week.

Industrial plants and business firms in the area are cooperating in the part-time use of their employees, and more than 35 Rutgers university students have registered for temporary employment.

FRENCH BOXER TOPS FIGHTERS IN N. AFRICA

By SID FEDER

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—From out of the just-concluded Allied North African boxing championships, the word drifted today that Tony Zale, Mr. Big of the world middleweights, may have quite a scramble on his hands from the French sailor-fighter, Marcel Cerdan, if the war ends in time.

Generally, the soldier and sailor swatters in the week-long Algiers tournament were willing workmen with more clout than boxing class, despite the larruping of Larry Cisneros, the California lightweight who was rated among the top dozen or so in this country a couple of years back, and Florent Desmarais, who was somewhat better than a green hand around New Hampshire and the rest of New England in 1942. Cisneros, who lost only eight of 57 pro fights in four years before joining the Army, wound up with the welterweight crown and Desmarais took the lightweight title.

Forecast Success

But the word on the thumping Tar from France gave him the unanimous vote as the ear-masher most likely to succeed, especially the way he tossed his blockbusters through the "senior welterweight" division. Before this tourney, he knocked off both Cisneros and Desmarais, and in grabbing the senior welterweight bauble, he flattened two of the three Americans he met in a round a-piece.

Marcel is no new comer to the business of denting ears. In fact, the International Boxing Union recognizes him as the middleweight champ of Europe—or it did when last heard from. The more reserved British Board of Boxing Control doesn't go quite that far, but concedes he's the head man in France.

He's 26 and has been punching his way around Europe and Africa since 1936. In 40 he called it a career, temporarily, to join the Navy. Last December he dusted off his stuff again, and since then, in half a dozen trips to the post no one went more than three or four heats with him. Which is par for the course.

Boiling Springs To Play At Arendtsville

Arendtsville high school will be without the service of Jack Taylor, rangy pivot, in tonight's game with Washington Township high school on the latter's court. It is also doubtful if Captain Paul Fissel will see action as he has been suffering from an attack of grip. Taylor sprained an ankle in the opening minutes of the recent Delone game and may be out of action all week.

Arendtsville fans will get their last view of the fast traveling vocational high school dribblers on the home court Wednesday night when they take on Boiling Springs in the final home tilt. This game was postponed from an earlier date due to the inability of the visiting team to arrive in time for the original date due to a snow storm. Both boys' and girls' teams will be in action Wednesday night with a host of players wearing the orange and black on the local hardwoods for the last time.

A return game with Arendtsville's arch-athletic rival, Biglerville, will be played in Biglerville Friday night. The final game of the regular campaign will be played at Boiling Springs on February 29. Both boys and girls will be in action at Biglerville and Boiling Springs.

Due to the fine showing that the Arendtsville vocational High school has made in Class "B" county conference play they will again appear in P.I.A.A. playoffs which will be announced in the near future. The record to date includes nine wins and three losses. All county competition in their class has been defeated.

Hawaiian Playmates In The Swim

Keo Nakama, Ohio State, winner of the 220 and 440-yard free style events in the Big Ten meet held at Northwestern in Evanston, Ill., gets a rubdown from Bill Smith (right), former Ohio State swimmer star. Hawaiian-born playmates, they were roommates at Ohio State. Smith dashed down from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station to Evanston where he made a 1:53.9 mark in the 220-yard free style in a dual meet with Iowa State, smashing his own world record of 1:56.6. Smith will submit his new time for recognition. Cpl. Harry Holiday (left), former Big Ten backstroke champ now stationed at Aberdeen, Md., assists Smith. (AP Wirephoto.)

Two Taverns Cagers Upset Bonneville

Two Taverns won a pair of basketball games from Bonneville in games played Monday evening at Two Taverns.

G. Conover scored 22 points to lead Two Taverns to a 50-22 victory in the first game while Rohrbaugh paced the scorers to lead his team to a 44-6 triumph in the second game.

Littlestown will play at Two Taverns Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Boy, 9, Drowns In Fall Through Ice

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 22 (AP)—David Jones, 9, drowned in four or five feet of water in Black Lick creek at Nanty-Glo yesterday, after he had broken through ice, despite a desperate effort by his father to save him.

Called from his nearby home by David's playmates, the father, William Jones, waded into the icy waters holding one end of wire. He was but a few feet from his son when the boy slipped under the ice and vanished. Almost at the same time, Jones' legs gave away under him and he had to be pulled to the shore by the boys.

Five hours later Conemaugh firemen found David's body, 12 feet from the spot where he broke through the ice.

New Relief Work Planned In Balkans

Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration is recruiting workers for "a special relief project in the Balkans," the Philadelphia Record says today.

The record reports that 176 workers, chosen from 30 eastern social agencies, will be among a 500-man relief staff of Americans, Britons and nationals of Middle East countries.

James G. Vail, former service secretary of the American Friends Service committee, disclosed the plan, the newspaper adds, Vail is quoted as saying that the group will operate "under military government," doing sanitation work, epidemic control, nursing and public health, with "supplies . . . allocated through the armies."

CANNERS SPLIT WITH LEMOYNE

The Biglerville high school basketball teams divided a pair of West Shore Scholastic league games with Lemoyne high at Biglerville Monday evening.

The boys got off to a poor start in the first period and dropped a 32-25 decision. At half time the visitors led 17-11. Scoring for both teams was evenly divided.

Coach Samuel Ehlman's unbeaten Biglerville girls won their 12th straight by winning the preliminary game 40-22. The victory also gave the Canners a perfect record in league competition. Betty Roddy paced the winners with 20 points.

A third game was played between the Blacks and Whites of the reserve boys' teams and resulted in a 21-11 victory for the Whites.

Biglerville will close its season Friday evening by meeting Arendtsville at Biglerville.

An Evening Thought

To persevere in one's duty and to be silent is the best answer to columny.—Washington.

Just Folks

"This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."—Mat. 17:5.

AUGUSTINE WASHINGTON

As once at Jordan from the skies

a voice by John was heard,

If fathers of good sons could speak,

would not all hearts be stirred?

Would not they tell us: There's no

pride or joy of gain or deed

Like that of having lived to see the

son they've loved succeed.

Of Augustine they'll little find who

who for the father looks.

Of him there's scarce a paragraph

in history's many books.

Yet, like the Father of us all who

gave the world a Son,

How great the pride of him must be

who fathered Washington!

To be the father of a man! What

better joy could be?

To tell: "My son reached heights of

fame that were denied to me!"

Would not all fathers given the choice pass gladly fortune by,

To say: "Tis my beloved son,

in whom well pleased am I?"

Today's Talk

LONELY PEOPLE

The great of this earth, with fame and world acclaim their own, have in fact been among the loneliest of humans.

Leonardo da Vinci was a lonely man. So lonely that he wrote himself in a notebook—talks to himself. Emil Ludwig has written that "his life was a dialogue with nature" and he tells of his "eternal loneliness." His mind, however, was ever at work. He was an inventor, as well as artist. He had a restless mind and his vision swept afar. So far, that only today are we beginning to apply some of the ideas that he evolved.

Famous reformers and liberators have always had to travel the lonely path. Lincoln was a very lonely man. Woodrow Wilson died of a broken heart—lonely to the last. The poet Poe wandered in loneliness from city to city. Yet these are immortal names, growing in lustre with the years.

Loneliness is one of the attributes of genius. If you would contribute to the world's betterment you cannot do so while wasting your substance and precious time upon selfish enterprises and among the inert.

Wendell Phillips, meeting the poetess Nora Perry upon the streets of Boston, asked where she was going. "To visit a friend," she replied. "Oh, take me with you!" said Phillips. And this latter remark by one who had all his life devoted his brilliant mind and great personality to the service of his human kind. Lonely people bear great burdens.

I have read where Carlyle and Tennyson used to sit together for hours, scarcely a word between them—satisfied under the spell of silent burdens.

Loneliness, after all, is discipline. A time in which the mind matures, the spirit becomes enlightened, and the soul cleansed. As someone has said: "Only by being alone can you belong completely to yourself."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Values."

STATE OVER TOP

Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—Pennsylvania now has reached 101.3 per cent of its quota in the Fourth War Loan campaign. The figure, $890,483,682, included bond purchases through Saturday, the state campaign headquarters announced. Potter county reached 132 per cent of its quota in E bond sales, highest county mark in the state.

How To Figure Your Income Tax

(Editor's note: Puzzled by your income tax blank? Here's the first of six daily columns designed to answer your questions.)

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—The thing to do with an income tax blank is to look it squarely in the eye and tackle it boldly.

The next piece of advice is: Don't try to get the whole picture in one glance. You can handle it better by cutting it up into little pieces, line by line.

But even before you look at it, it's best to gather up certain information.

For a starter, you'll probably need two little official slips of paper: One from your employer showing how much he paid you in 1943 and how much was taken out of your pay for income taxes; the other from the internal revenue bureau showing how much 1942 tax you owed and how much you paid on it last March and June (this slip must be sent in with your tax return).

Get Your Figures
Some taxpayers won't have either slip. If you didn't have a regular employer, you'll have to total your income yourself. If you didn't owe a 1942 tax, the 1943 tax will keep you busy anyway.

If you filed a declaration of estimated 1943 tax last September or December, you need to look up how much you paid on it.

There are three special reasons why federal income tax returns are required by March 15 this year even under pay-as-you-go.

1. Since pay-as-you-go started only in July, there's the first half of 1943—when deductions from pay covered only the victory tax—to be accounted for. This affects about two-thirds of the estimated 50,000,000 taxpayers. (Some will have refunds coming.) The other third got roughly up-to-date with declarations last September or December—and they have to make a final accounting.

1943 Victory Tax
2. An exact figuring of the 1943 victory tax is required. Congress decided to give everyone the immediate and full benefit of the so-called "post-war credit" under the law. This reduces the tax from five per cent of everything over $24 a year, to a figure around three per cent but varying according to marital status and number of dependents.

3. Half the unaccounted portion of one year's taxes is due. The "forgiveness" amounts to 75 per cent or $50, whichever is larger, of lower-year taxes (1942 or 1943). If you didn't owe a tax in one of the two years, you get no "forgiveness."

(There's a special rule for persons who entered the armed services in 1942 or 1943 which we'll take up later in this series.)

Who Must File
Anyone in the following groups must file a return for 1943:

1. A single person whose income was $500 or more.

2. A married person whose income was more than $24; also, a husband and wife whose combined income was $1,200 or more.

3. Everyone who paid or owed a tax on 1942 income.

If you're in the armed forces, you don't have to include in your income (or pay a tax on) the first $1,500 of your service pay.

a serviceman on duty outside the United States may wait until after the war or coming back home. His wife doesn't need to file a return unless her own income—not counting the allotment she gets from the government—amounted to $1,200 or more.

By James Marlow and George Zielke
Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—Deductions have a double-barreled significance in your Federal income tax.

In any case, they cut down the amount of tax; in some cases, to get the most benefit, they also may determine which blank you should use, the long or short form.

So before tackling any blank, you'll want to set down on paper some of the things you'll be able to deduct.

Deductible Expenses
The first thing to consider is an item called "deductible expenses." These are necessary expenses in connection with earning your living.

You may list the cost of tools if you had to buy them; union dues, including the initiation fee if you joined a union last year in order to get or keep your job, and even the cost of subscription to your union paper; also any fee paid to an employment agency.

Traveling expenses in connection with your job—transportation, Darley Park beers. Also all kinds of pops and ginger ales. Office 117 West High street, Gettysburg.

Fairfield Items: Jas. Gladhill, of Penna. College, spent Sunday with his uncle, C. J. Sefton.

On Friday night about 40 of our young people attended a dance at Cashman.

George McLaughlin has gone into the butchering business. We have three now.

George W. Wortz, agt., has sold his stock of merchandise at Iron Springs to Jno. F. Peters.

Jacob Musselman, who has been filling the long form separately, then you have to use the long form, too.

In any case, you may use the short form only if:

1. Your total 1943 incomes was not more than $3,000.

2. Your income came entirely from salary, wages, dividends, interests and annuities.

Also, if your wife or husband is filing the long form separately, then you have to use the long form, too.

Other proposals, it is expected, will include creation of international lending machinery to finance buying in this country (possibly by modification of present federal agencies) and participation in an international fund to stabilize currency exchange.

FATALLY INJURED
Pittsburgh, Feb. 22 (AP)—Two men were injured fatally when they were struck by automobiles Sunday night, the coroner reported. William Novotny, 42, of North Versailles township, died on his way to McKeesport hospital. Gaza Matyasyovskiy, 65, of Clairton, died in McKeesport hospital several hours after he had been struck by a car near his home.

meals, hotels—may be included. But if you get a travel allowance or expense account, the amounts must be included in your income. Also, you can't claim the cost of bus or street car or gasoline used in going to and from work.

Cost of uniforms is deductible only if (1) they are specifically required, and (2) they don't take the place of ordinary clothing you'd be buying anyway. There are rulings that you can't deduct cost of uniforms of nurses, railway trainmen, barbers, surgeons or military and naval uniforms.

You can't deduct the cost of hiring a maid to take care of the kids while you're at work.

For all deductible expenses you must attach an itemized statement to your return.

Separate Items
Under separate headings, you'll want to list these deductions:

1. Contributions to church, charity, scientific and educational organizations.

Congress To Hear Economic Proposals

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—Plans to implement a program for postwar economic readjustments in the foreign as well as domestic field may be proposed to Congress by the administration this session.

Shelving of a law that prohibits foreign governments from borrowing in this country unless they are paid up on their first World War debts is expected to be among the proposals, which would complement the Baruch blueprint for internal economic changes after the war.

This law, as it now stands would prevent major European governments—those most in need of help in reconstruction—from obtaining credits here. Officials now planning postwar economic foreign policy regard the prohibition as a complete block to their financial plans.

Other proposals, it is expected, will include creation of international lending machinery to finance buying in this country (possibly by modification of present federal agencies) and participation in an international fund to stabilize currency exchange.

SOLONS PLAN TO OVERRIDE VETO
Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—A Democratic revolt threatened to overwhelm a presidential veto of the $2,315,000,000 new tax bill, due from the White House today.

With Republican members lined up almost solidly behind the measure, Congress set Thursday for a vote on whether to pass the legislation over Mr. Roosevelt's objection that it does not provide sufficient revenue.

The sweep of tax developments included:

1. Reports circulated that joining in the move to override the President may be Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means committee, Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Senate Finance committee, and even Senate Democratic Leader Barkley, of Kentucky.

2. The House Republican Steering committee prepared to throw the party's whole strength into an effort to squash the veto.

3. Senator George predicted that if the House overrides then the Senate will follow suit.

However, Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) said he expected the House to sustain the President. Representative Knutson of Minnesota, ways and means Republican leader, disputed the speaker, declaring: "We will override."

James May Enter Democratic Primary
Harrisburg, Feb. 22 (AP)—Former Republican Governor Arthur H. James isn't one to run away from a fight and he might enter the April 25 Democratic primary to prove a point.

The one-time anthracite collieries breaker-boy is seriously considering such a step in retaliation for Democratic invasion of the GOP primary in opposition to him.

James, recently was appointed to the superior court which he left to head the commonwealth in 1939. Democratic leaders have announced incumbent Judge Chester H. Rhodes will enter the Republican primary with the expressed purpose of campaigning against James' bid for a full 10-year term.

"There is a very strong possibility that James will enter the Democratic primary," sources close to the former governor declared today. "It may be a hotter fight than you think."

OPA Penalizes 46 Station Operators
Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—Forty-six more Philadelphia gasoline station operators have been penalized by the OPA on charges of accepting counterfeit ration coupons. The penalties were reductions, totaling 11,305 gallons, in the amount of gasoline the operators are permitted to have on hand.

OPA said three per cent of all gasoline sold in the Philadelphia area in the 23-day period ended last Friday was sold illegally.

An Evening Thought

To persevere in one's duty and to be silent is the best answer to calumny.—Washington.

Just Folks

("This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased!")—Mat. 17:5.

AUGUSTINE WASHINGTON

As once at Jordan from the skies

a voice by John was heard.

If fathers of good sons could speak,

would not all hearts be stirred?

Would not they tell us: There's no

pride or joy of gain or deed

Like that of having lived to see the

son they've loved succeed.

Of Augustine they'll little find who

who for the father looks.

Of him there's scarce a paragraph

in history's many books.

Yet, like the Father of us all who

gave the world a Son,

How great the pride of him must be

who fathered Washington!

To be the father of a man! What

better joy could be?

To tell: "My son reached heights of

fame that were denied to me!"

Would not all fathers given the

choice pass gladly fortune by.

To say: " 'Tis my beloved son,

in whom well pleased am I?"

Today's Talk

LONELY PEOPLE

The great of this earth, with fame and world acclaim their own,

have in fact been among the loneliest of humans.

Leonardo da Vinci was a lonely

man. So lonely that he wrote things in a notebook—talks to himself. Emil

Ludwig has written that "his life was a dialogue with nature" and he tells of his "eternal loneliness." His mind, however, was ever at work.

He was an inventor, as well as artist.

He had a restless mind and his vision swept afar. So far, that only today are we beginning to apply

some of the ideas that he evolved.

Famous reformers and liberators have always had to travel the lonely path. Lincoln was a very lonely man. Woodrow Wilson died of a broken heart—lonely to the last.

The poet Poe wandered in loneliness from city to city. Yet these are immortal names, growing in lustre

with the years.

Loneliness is one of the attributes of genius. If you would contribute to the world's betterment you cannot do so while wasting your substance and precious time upon selfish enterprises and among the inert.

Wendell Phillips, meeting the poetess Nora Perry upon the streets of Boston, asked where she was going. "To visit a friend," she replied. "Oh, take me with you!"

said Phillips. And this latter remark by one who had all his life devoted his brilliant mind and great personality to the service of his human kind. Lonely people bear great burdens.

I have read where Carlyle and Tennyson used to sit together for hours, scarcely a word between them

—satisfied under the spell of silent burdens.

Loneliness, after all, is discipline.

A time in which the mind matures,

the spirit becomes enlightened, and the soul cleansed. As someone has said: "Only by being alone can you belong completely to yourself."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Values"

STATE OVER TOP

Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—Pennsylvania now has reached 101.3 per cent of its quota in the Fourth War

Loan campaign. The figure, $990,- through Saturday, the state campaign headquarters announced. Potter county reached 132 per cent of its quota in E bond sales, highest county mark in the state.

How To

Figure Your Income Tax

(Editor's note: Puzzled by your income tax blank? Here's the first of six daily columns designed to answer your questions.)

By JAMES MARLOW and
GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—The thing to do with an income tax blank is to look it squarely in the eye and tackle it boldly.

The next piece of advice is: Don't try to get the whole picture in one glance. You can handle it better

by cutting it up into little pieces, line by line.

But even before you look at it, it's best to gather up certain information.

For a starter, you'll probably need
two little official slips of paper:

One from your employer showing how much he paid you in 1943 and how much was taken out of your pay for income taxes; the other from the internal revenue bureau showing how much 1942 tax you owed and how much you paid on it last March and June (this slip must be sent in with your tax return).

Get Your Figures

Some taxpayers won't have either slip. If you didn't have a regular employer, you'll have to total your income yourself. If you didn't owe a 1942 tax, the 1943 tax will keep you busy anyway.

If you filed a declaration of estimated 1943 tax last September or December, you need to look up how much you paid on it.

There are three special reasons why federal income tax returns are required by March 15 this year even under pay-as-you-go.

1. Since pay-as-you-go started only in July, there's the first half of 1943—when deductions from pay covered only the victory tax—to be accounted for. This affects about two-thirds of the estimated 50,- 000,000 taxpayers. (Some will have refunds coming.) The other third got roughly up-to-date with declarations last September or December—and they have to make a final accounting.

1943 Victory Tax

2. An exact figuring of the 1943 victory tax is required. Congress decided to give everyone the im-

FLIGHT FROM LOVE

by JOHN C. FLEMING and LOIS EBY AP Features

Chapter 27
As Marek's car turned off Sunset Boulevard, slipped through the massive stone gateway and started up the sharply winding road through Bel-Air, Julie caught her breath at the almost unbelievable beauty of the place.

"This is lovely!" Julie said. "How long have you had this place up here?"

"I built it five years ago when Rene and I were first married. We only lived in it a year." Marek looked suddenly serious. "Somehow Rene wasn't happy here, so we decided to call it quits."

The car had reached the summit of the hill and was turning into a winding driveway that skirted the thirty room English manor type house. The top of the hill had been sheared off to make a level clearing of several acres. Two tennis courts, a bright green tile swimming pool and an outdoor stone barbecue dotted the lawn. The lawn was perfectly cared for and the windows of the house shone like clear crystal.

"You mean that nobody lives in this lovely place?" Julie asked. "Nobody but the caretaker and his wife," Marek said. "I haven't been up here in two months."

The car stopped and Marek and Julie got out. "You might as well run the car into the garage," Marek said to the chauffeur. "We'll be here all afternoon."

Mrs. Primley, a small pleasant-looking woman with white hair answered the door. She seemed happy to see Marek and nodded smilingly toward Julie as Marek introduced them.

Across the living room the doors were flung open onto a wide terrace bordered with bright flowers. Marek led Julie out to a group of chairs awash with the sun.

"Let's get a little of this sun," he said. "I've been in that office so much lately I've almost forgotten what the sun is like."

"It's strange that you haven't sold this place," Julie said.

A faint smile crossed Marek's face. "I did have a deal on it just before I made that trip back east when I met you."

"What happened?"

"When I came home I called the agent and told him the place wasn't for sale any longer. You see, I'm somewhat of a sentimentalist—I've always thought that someday, somehow, I'd find just the right girl who'd fit into this setting. When I met you I knew I'd found her."

Julie felt slow color coming to her cheeks. "That's sweet of you, Marek, but something's happened to me, since I came out here. I used to think that things like this were all that mattered—houses on hillsides, money, social position—these things seem hollow and empty in today's world."

"I know," Marek leaned forward in his chair and took Julie's hand. "But this war will be over someday, and people will go back to normal living. You don't want to struggle for an existence then like Fairfield—A surprise house warming was given Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Benner Friday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Benner, Mrs. George Stoneback, John David Benner, The Rev. and Mrs. Amos Geigley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Musselman, Wilmer Stoner, Arthur Roth, Edwin Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yoder, Miss Sara Mickle, Mrs. Roy Mickle, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bream and family. Mr. and Mrs. Benner were presented a table and a table lamp.

The vice-president, Mrs. Harry Kane, presided at the February meeting of the N. C. C. W. of St. Mary's church Friday evening in the church social rooms. The meeting was opened with prayer and the flag salute. Father Joseph Gotswalt spoke briefly on the question of juvenile delinquency and possible means for preventing it. He stressed the fact that the full cooperation of the parents is the first essential because it is in the home that the first attack must be made.

Mrs. Francis Schultz, the discussion leader, presented a program of questions and answers on national and international affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Neely, Jr., and family, of York, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Neely's parents.

Miss Mildred Reindollar, of Hagerstown, spent the week-end with her brother, Howard Reindollar, and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conrad and son, Frankie, of Waynesboro visited Mrs. Conrad's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Harbaugh, Sunday.

King Gustaf of Sweden ascended the throne in January of 1908.

in a quick gesture of understanding. "I know exactly what you're thinking," he said. "It's really up to him to do the looking up."

Julie got up from the bench and smiled at Marek.

"Shall we go back to the valley now? I'm getting a little chilly and I don't bring a coat."

FLIGHT from LOVE

by JOHN C. FLEMING and LOIS EBY AP Features

Chapter 27

As Marek's car turned off Sunset Boulevard, slipped through the massive stone gateway and started up the sharply winding road through Bel-Air, Julie caught her breath at the almost unbelievable beauty of the place.

"This is lovely!" Julie said. "How long have you had this place up here?"

"I built it five years ago when Rene and I were first married. We only lived in it a year," Marek looked suddenly serious. "Somehow Rene wasn't happy here, so we decided to call it quits."

The car had reached the summit of the hill and was turning into a winding driveway that skirted the thirty room English manor type house. The top of the hill had been sheared off to make a level clearing of several acres. Two tennis courts, a bright green tile swimming pool and an outdoor stone barbecue dotted the lawn. The lawn was perfectly cared for and the windows of the house shone like clear crystal.

"You mean that nobody lives in this lovely place?" Julie asked.

"Nobody but the caretaker and his wife," Marek said. "I haven't been up here in two months."

The car stopped and Marek and Julie got out.

"You might as well run the car into the garage," Marek said to the chauffeur. "We'll be here all afternoon."

Mrs. Primley, a small pleasant-looking woman with white hair answered the door. She seemed happy to see Marek and nodded smilingly toward Julie as Marek introduced them.

Across the living room the doors were flung open onto a wide terrace bordered with bright flowers. Marek led Julie out to a group of chairs awash with the sun.

"Let's get a little of this sun," he said. "I've been in that office so much lately I've almost forgotten what the sun is like."

"It's strange that you haven't sold this place," Julie said.

A faint smile crossed Marek's face. "I did have a deal on it just before I made that trip back east when I met you."

"What happened?"

Julie felt slow color coming to her cheeks.

"That's sweet of you, Marek, but something's happened to me since I came out here. I used to think that things like this were all that mattered—houses on hilltops, money, social position—these things seem hollow and empty in today's world."

RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—It will be "Red Cross Day" on all networks next Tuesday from sign-on to sign-off. The purpose is to help in getting under way the 1944 war fund drive with a goal of $200,000,000 which is to continue through March.

As being arranged, each program on the day's schedule is to have something to say or do about the Red Cross, with here and there special broadcasts entirely Red Cross.

Added to its schedule for 10:15 a. m. Thursday, MBS announces, is a description of the launching of the carrier, Shangri-La. . . It has been decided to continue indefinitely the Dave Elman Victory Auctions on MBS Saturday evenings. Originally the program was planned as feature of the Fourth War Loan drive.

8,000 MINERS WALK OUT OVER UNION DISPUTE

Shenandoah, Pa., Feb. 22 (AP)—The nation's production of hard coal to meet a war-time shortage was cut an estimated 16 per cent today by a walkout of 8,000 miners, who called a "holiday" in a dispute over the dismissal of one man.

Seven collieries and two breakers of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company were closed and the company said their average daily output was 30,000 tons. Daily production throughout the anthracite fields last year averaged between 180,000 and 190,000 tons, state officials have estimated.

Cites "Desperate Needs"

A demand by the Solid Fuels Administration that the workers return to the pits went unheeded last night. Knickerbocker union one United Mine Workers local involved, endorsed the "holiday" after receiving a back-to-work order in a telegram from E. J. Potter, Deputy SFA administrator. "Your country is in desperate need of all the anthracite it can produce," the telegram said. "Please wire me immediately that your members have returned to work."

The dispute followed dismissal of February 9 of Julius Barowski, local committeeman at Knickerbocker colliery. The company accused him of interfering with the management by ordering certain employees to accept responsibility for only one job. The union demanded his reinstatement, pending negotiations, and said the company declined.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I guess you thought I forgot about you because I didn't write you sooner. I sure appreciate you sending me The Gettysburg Times. It certainly is a pleasure to read news about folks back home. There isn't anything that cheers a soldier up any more than to get news from back home, at least that's the way with me.

We sure have nice surroundings out here, which consists of green lawns, flowers and palm trees. We don't need to worry about getting sand in our eyes everytime we step outside, like back at Camp Barkley. It gets very cool at night, but it generally warms up during the day time.

I guess you are having plenty of snow back there in Pennsylvania. I also want to thank the folks back home for all their cards and letters. I must close for this time.

Yours truly,

PVT. HARRY R. MEALS,
Med. Dept. Enl. Tech. School,
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Sir:

I want to thank you for sending me the Times for my short stay here in California. I have enjoyed reading it and all the other boys usually want to read it also. I will be leaving here in a week or 10 days so I guess you had better stop sending it as soon as you get this letter as it takes about five days for it to arrive out here.

The weather out here is nice and warm in the day time but it gets very cool at night. The scenery is real nice and plenty of places to spend our liberties. Keep up the good work of sending the boys the paper and thanks again for the ones I have received and enjoyed reading.

Exploration for oil is only about one-fourth as unprofitable as it once was because of improved technical methods of finding subterranean petroleum pools.

Noted Architect Expires Monday

Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—David Knickerbocker Boyd, noted architect, died yesterday, 15 minutes after he was stricken ill in his office. He was 72.

Called one of the original advocates of the set-back principle in architecture, Boyd was a founder and former president of the Pennsylvania State Association of Architects and vice president of the American Institute of Architects. He served as consultant to many government agencies.

Boyd lectured and wrote on economics and construction and, during the first World War, was chief of the materials section of the U. S. Housing Corporation and a member of the war industries board.

ZEHNER CHOSEN AS NEW HEAD OF AAA IN PENNA.

Harrisburg, Feb. 22 (AP)—Clyde A. Zehner, 43-year-old Luzerne county farmer recommended for Chairman of the Agriculture Adjustment Agency in Pennsylvania, believes key food production increases may not be forthcoming this year "unless immediate action is taken to assist farmers."

Zehner, chosen by the State AAA committee at its meeting yesterday, will succeed James E. Walker, Somerset county, who resigned recently from the $4,800 a year post, if the recommendation is approved by N. E. Dodd, AAA chief in Washington. George W. Schuler, Berks county, also was recommended to succeed Zehner as vice-chairman.

"Farmers are awaiting to see if the Commodity Credit Corporation survives as a price supporting agency," Zehner said in a statement. "If Selective Service permits further depletion of farm labor and if present policies of agricultural credit are to be maintained before they make commitments for increased production in 1944."

Soybean Acreage
Zehner explained farmers have been asked to plant 100,000 acres of soybeans, which he called "one of our principal war crops," against 60,000 in 1943, but that growers in southeastern Pennsylvania have indicated they prefer to increase corn acreage instead.

Asserting corn at present ceiling prices will yield about $75 an acre against $40 an acre for soybeans and that Pennsylvania farmers want to be sure of having corn for feed next fall, Zehner said "if soybean production falls below average, our milk production will drop accordingly because soybean meal is one of the basic protein feeds demanded by the dairy farmer."

Seeks To Have Ship Named "Johnstown"

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—Senator Davis (R-Pa.) wants the Navy to name a cruiser for the city of Johnstown, Pa.

The Senate Naval committee member, in a letter to Sec. Knox, said a U. S. S. Johnstown would be a recognition of Johnstown's importance as a steel-producing city and center of a bituminous coal area.

COAL OUTPUT UP

Harrisburg, Feb. 22 (AP)—Hard coal produced last Sunday totaled 144,505 tons against 144,995 tons produced on February 13, the State Anthracite committee reported yesterday.

MORE TURKEYS

Harrisburg, Feb. 22 (AP)—Nearly 100,000 more turkeys will be raised in Pennsylvania this year to better the record 1943 production of 1,071,000 fowls.

RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—It will be "Red Cross Day" on all networks next Tuesday from sign-on to sign-off. The purpose is to help in getting under way the 1944 war fund drive with a goal of $200,000,000 which is to continue through March.

As being arranged, each program on the day's schedule is to have something to say or do about the Red Cross, with here and there special broadcasts entirely Red Cross.

Added to its schedule for 10:15 a. m. Thursday, MBS announces, is a description of the launching of the carrier, Shangri-La. . . . It has been decided to continue indefinitely the Dave Eiman Victory Auctions on MBS Saturday evenings. Originally the program was planned as feature of the Fourth War Loan drive.

8,000 MINERS WALK OUT OVER UNION DISPUTE

Shenandoah, Pa., Feb. 22 (AP)—The nation's production of hard coal to meet a war-time shortage was cut an estimated 16 per cent today by a walkout of 8,000 miners, who called a "holiday" in a dispute over the dismissal of one man.

Seven collieries and two breakers of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company were closed and the company said their average daily output was 30,000 tons. Daily production throughout the anthracite fields last year averaged between 180,000 and 190,000 tons, state officials have estimated.

Cites "Desperate Needs"

A demand by the Solid Fuels Administration that the workers return to the pits went unheeded last night. Knickerbocker union one United Mine Workers local involved, endorsed the "holiday" after receiving a back-to-work order in a telegram from E. J. Potter, Deputy SFA administrator. "Your country is in desperate need of all the anthracite it can produce," the telegram said. "Please wire me immediately that your members have returned to work."

The dispute followed dismissal of February 9 of Julius Barowski, local committeeman at Knickerbocker colliery. The company accused him of interfering with the management by ordering certain employees to accept responsibility for only one job. The union demanded his reinstatement, pending negotiations, and said the company declined.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I guess you thought I forgot about you because I didn't write you sooner. I sure appreciate you sending me The Gettysburg Times. It certainly is a pleasure to read news about folks back home. There isn't anything that cheers a soldier up any more than to get news from back home, at least that's the way with me.

We sure have nice surroundings out here, which consists of green lawns, flowers and palm trees. We don't need to worry about getting sand in our eyes everytime we step outside, like back at Camp Barkley. It gets very cool at night, but it generally warms up during the day time.

I guess you are having plenty of snow back there in Pennsylvania. I also want to thank the folks back home for all their cards and letters. I must close for this time.

Yours truly,
PVT. HARRY R. MEALS,

Dear Sir:

I want to thank you for sending me the Times for my short stay here in California. I have enjoyed reading it and all the other boys usually want to read it also. I will be leaving here in a week or 10 days so I guess you had better stop sending it as soon as you get this letter as it takes about five days for it to arrive out here.

The weather out here is nice and warm in the day time but it gets very cool at night. The scenery is real nice and plenty of places to spend our liberties. Keep up the good work of sending the boys the paper and thanks again for the ones I have received and enjoyed reading.

Exploration for oil is only about one-fourth as unprofitable as it once was because of improved technical methods of finding subterranean petroleum pools.

Noted Architect Expires Monday

Philadelphia, Feb. 22 (AP)—David Knickerbocker Boyd, noted architect, died yesterday, 15 minutes after he was stricken ill in his office. He was 72.

Called one of the original advocates of the set-back principle in architecture, Boyd was a founder and former president of the Pennsylvania State Association of Architects and vice president of the American Institute of Architects. He served as consultant to many government agencies.

Boyd lectured and wrote on economics and construction and, during the first World War, was chief of the materials section of the U. S. Housing Corporation and a member of the war industries board.

ZEHNER CHOSEN AS NEW HEAD OF AAA IN PENNA.

Harrisburg, Feb. 22 (AP)—Clyde A. Zehner, 43-year-old Luzerne county farmer recommended for Chairman of the Agriculture Adjustment Agency in Pennsylvania, believes key food production increases may not be forthcoming this year "unless immediate action is taken to assist farmers."

Zehner, chosen by the State AAA committee at its meeting yesterday, will succeed James E. Walker, Somerset county, who resigned recently from the $4,800 a year post, if the recommendation is approved by N. E. Dodd, AAA chief in Washington. George W. Schuler, Berks county, also was recommended to succeed Zehner as vice-chairman.

"Farmers are awaiting to see if the Commodity Credit Corporation survives as a price supporting agency," Zehner said in a statement. "If Selective Service permits further depletion of farm labor and if present policies of agricultural credit are to be maintained before they make commitments for increased production in 1944."

Soybean Acreage
Zehner explained farmers have been asked to plant 100,000 acres of soybeans, which he called "one of our principal war crops," against 60,000 in 1943, but that growers in southeastern Pennsylvania have indicated they prefer to increase corn acreage instead.

Asserting corn at present ceiling prices will yield about $75 an acre against $40 an acre for soybeans and that Pennsylvania farmers want to be sure of having corn for feed next fall, Zehner said "if soybean production falls below average, our milk production will drop accordingly because soybean meal is one of the basic protein feeds demanded by the dairy farmer."

Seeks To Have Ship Named "Johnstown"

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—Senator Davis (R-Pa.) wants the Navy to name a cruiser for the city of Johnstown, Pa.

The Senate Naval committee member, in a letter to Sec. Knox, said a U. S. S. Johnstown would be a recognition of Johnstown's importance as a steel-producing city and center of a bituminous coal area.

COAL OUTPUT UP
Harrisburg, Feb. 22 (AP)—Hard coal produced last Sunday totaled 144,505 tons against 144,995 tons produced on February 13, the State Anthracite committee reported yesterday.

MORE TURKEYS
Harrisburg, Feb. 22 (AP)—Nearly 100,000 more turkeys will be raised in Pennsylvania this year to better the record 1943 production of 1,071,000 fowls.
